

DEBATE ON RATE BILL UP

Townsend Warns Corporations

PEOPLE DEMAND MEASURE

Are Rapidly Growing Sour on the Rich Power- ful Lobby.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30.—The most important section of the Hepburn rate bill, consideration of which begun in the house today, is section four, which confers power on the inter-state commerce commission to establish a just and remunerative maximum rate. The power to initiate rates is not given.

The rate debate began early in the house today which sat as a committee of the whole. Townsend opened by declaring the opposition endeavored to discredit the administration in various matters and to detract attention from his question. He spoke of the "lobby, rich and powerful," of "the unwarranted interference with the people's rights," and of "dication of nominations, elections and legislators by corporations."

He warned the corporations the further blocking of railroad regulation legislation would bring upon them the "wrath of an indignant people," and declared the bill presented now is the least the people will accept.

He said the committee believes the bill effects a complete remedy for the evils. Townsend was followed by Adamson who is in charge of the debate for the democrats.

PIONEER CONDUCT- OR DEAD

L. H. Searle Suc- cumbes at 53

CONDUCTOR FOR 20 YEARS

Was One of Survivors of Rio and Other His- toric Wrecks

Lucius H. Searle, of Milwaukee, for thirty-two years a conductor on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, most of the time running between Milwaukee and La Crosse, died last night at his home, aged 53 years. Mr. Searle was born on Nov. 17, 1852, at Springfield, Mass., and he came to Milwaukee with his parents at an early age.

When he was but 16 years of age he became a freight brakeman, and three years later he was made a passenger brakeman. After two months he was given a position as conductor of a mixed train running between Watertown and Madison. Soon after he was transferred to the main line between Milwaukee and Portage, where he remained for ten years. At the expiration of that time Mr. Searle was given a straight passenger run on the La Crosse division, and he took the Pioneer Limited out on its maiden trip. Mr. Searle was one of the first conductors on trains made up entirely of passenger coaches.

In all his railroad career Mr. Searle is said never to have missed a trip. He was conductor of the passenger train in the Rio wreck, where fifteen lives were lost on Oct. 22, 1886. His methodical habits were the cause of his escape from death at that time. Just before the crash the veteran conductor was in a coach that was later destroyed by fire. He remembered having left a book misplaced in the baggage car, and on the instant went to recover it. In doing so he left the car in which certain death waited. Mr. Searle and the baggage men were pinned under trunks and wreckage. After heroic efforts the conductor freed himself and saved the life of the baggageman. Many other accidents were included in the experience of the old railroad man, but in none he received blame.

Mr. Searle was well known in railroad circles both in Milwaukee and in La Crosse where much of his time was spent.

On Sept. 20, 1905, he retired, from service on account of failing health. Since October he has been confined to his bed suffering with Bright's disease and other complications.

A widow, Jennie E. Searle, three children, Donald H. Lucius, Jr., and Marie Searle in Milwaukee, and a mother 75 years of age in Michigan survive.

Catherine Cem- lik No More

The funeral will be held from the Holy Cross church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

HEARD GARFIELD SWEAR IMMUNITY

Former Comptroller Dawes Testifies in Beef Trial

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Krauthoff was recalled to the stand this morning for further testimony regarding the alleged promise of immunity made by Garfield to the packers. A number of questions were asked as to the witnesses' advice to his clients on the question of giving information the commissioner sought.

Charles G. Dawes, former U. S. comptroller, was a witness to testify as to the conference at the Chicago club when, it is declared, immunity was promised.

Dawes said: "Garfield assured the packers they need have nothing to fear that their disclosures would be held confidential. He repeatedly assured them his action in the case was guided by the desire to convince them nothing his department procured from them would be used for their injured. He told them he believed the result of the investigation would be beneficial instead of injurious."

Other witnesses for the packers gave like testimony.

DEATH CAME VERY QUIETLY

Mr. Brady, although feeble from old age, had been in the best of health this winter and his sudden demise was a great shock to relatives. No complaint or sound marked the end. His pipe was still smoking when his daughter came in from another room and found him stiffened out in his chair with life extinct.

Deceased for many years resided in Brownsville, being one of the pioneers of Houston county. He came to this city to reside several years ago. He was a brother of the late M. C. Brady of 131 North Seventh street.

ATTORNEY WILL CLAIM ACCIDENT

Boy in Auto Suit Admits Boehm Had No Chance to Avoid Him

Little Ferdinand Simenson was playing shadow tag about in the street under an arc lamp with three other boys and was paying but little attention to passing vehicles when he was run down by Henry Boehm's automobile the 18th of last October, according to the plaintiff's own admission on the stand in circuit court this morning.

This is the first damage suit resulting from automobiles in La Crosse county and the case is attracting considerable attention. The boy who through his mother is suing Mr. Boehm for damages, was on the stand most of the morning. On cross examination the boy admitted playing about in the street under the arc lamp at the time of the accident, and under the contention on this point that the youth was extremely negligent and that he darted in front of the automobile and gave Mr. Boehm who was driving the machine, no chance to avoid him, the attorneys for the defense will base their main argument.

During the latter part of last November Hanson demonstrated at Hendricks and Olson's store on a Saturday and sold 1,337 packages. This factory is now out of the trust and is making great headway in wholesale cracker and candy lines.

ICE FAMINE BECOMING SERIOUS

The ice harvest has been abandoned by dealers who are cutting from the Mississippi, and nothing more will be done until a cold snap freezes the water and slush which now covers the ice to a depth of several inches.

This is another of a series of handicaps which the dealers have had to contend with in an effort to get in their annual harvest. While a few private ice houses have been filled with a rather poor quality of ice none of the big dealers has much more than made a start in getting in the required supply. A couple of weeks more mild weather will make

PASTOR GRAY STRENUOUS

Serious Charge Was D- missed and Defense Was Not Allowed

The trouble at the Tabernacle Baptist church reached the climax evening when the report of the committee recommended Mrs. F. W. Silloway of 1402 George street be communicated from the church.

It is understood that the members of the congregation who voted somewhat influenced to vote against her by rumors of a more serious charge which could not be proved and which was dropped. The dismissed person also claims that she is legally dismissed as according to rule of the church. Rev. Gray does not prefer charges against her leg as he is not a member of the church and has never been ordained a minister. She also claims Rev. Gray has never put a letter into the church as other ministers.

It seems that a rather serious charge was brought up at the meeting of the committee last Monday evening and Mrs. Silloway had no preparations to defend herself against this charge and had three statements to make and also had witnesses present to prove that charge was untrue but this was dropped and Mrs. Silloway's attorney given no chance whatever to defend her.

Mrs. Silloway in speaking to a representative of the Tribune today that "Mr. Stoera, a member of committee, had stated that he would allow me to have counsel, but we were about to appear we were allowed any representation what and were tried and convicted without the least chance by member the church whose minds had been poisoned with the gossip which been circulated about a more serious charge which could not be proved." "After the serious charge had been dropped," said Mrs. Silloway, "they brought up the minor charge which charged me with calling a liar, and one of the board testified that Mr. Gray had said what he accused of."

"Different women on the board were then asked whether they ever heard me call anyone a liar."

DANES MOURN DEATH OF VENERABLE MONARCH

Copenhagen, Jan. 30.—King Christian IX, the oldest monarch in Europe, died yesterday at 3:30 p. m., aged 87 years. His death was unexpected and causes the greatest sorrow among his people, by whom he was greatly beloved for his many splendid qualities of heart and mind. It also plunges into mourning nearly all the royal courts of Europe, to which he was allied by ties of blood or marriage. Prince Frederic, Christian's eldest living son, will succeed to the throne. Prince Carl, Frederic's son, was recently chosen king of Norway. ... the king's bedside when he died were the crown prince and the crown princess and their children, and the dowager empress of Russia.

On the Throne Forty-Two Years.
The news of his majesty's death spread with great rapidity and signs of the greatest grief were to be seen everywhere. The news was conveyed to the Danish lower house, which immediately suspended its sittings. King Christian ruled long and wisely. He was on the throne forty-two years, since Nov. 15, 1863. Only one other European potentate, Francis Joseph of Austria, has swayed a scepter for a longer period, and to no other has been given so much happiness in the sphere of the home as well as in affairs of state.

Related to Many Thrones.
No other royal family of Europe has formed so many matrimonial alliances with other great reigning houses. One or King Christian's daughters is the queen of England; another is the dowager empress of Russia; his eldest son, George, is king of Greece, and one grandson, Prince Charles, married the Princess Maud, a daughter of King Edward of England. All of King Christian's six children are married and have large families, there being thirty-four grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

FATHER-IN-LAW OF EUROPE
Most of the Royal Houses in the Old World in Mourning.

London, Jan. 30.—The sudden death of King Christian of Denmark, called the "father-in-law of Europe," will place the majority of the royal houses of Europe in mourning. His sons and daughters were preparing for their annual trip to Copenhagen to celebrate his 88th birthday. Queen Alexandra received the news of the death of her father at Windsor. It came as a great shock to her, as apparently there had been no previous intimation of his indisposition.

The old king was exceedingly popular with all classes of his subjects, even with those who profess to be opposed to monarchical institutions. Since the destruction of Christiansburg by fire, nearly twenty years ago, the king has made his home in the relatively small palace of Amalienborg, where he lived until his accession to the throne, and where Queen Alexandra, the empress dowager of Russia, the Duchess of Cumberland, the king of Greece, and the other children of King Christian spent the greater portion of their youth.

Occupying the throne of a minor kingdom, Christian, by reason of his great abilities, his uprightness, fairness and personal charm, became the most influential monarch in Europe. His counsel was in frequent demand by his brother rulers, and many times it is said that the peace of Europe has been preserved through his wise and moderate advice. He was often called on to act as arbiter or umpire to settle international disputes, and each decision gained him added fame as a wise and just judge. He was also eminent for his personal purity and honesty. He was born April 8, 1818.

Thirty-three were given work at the Wisconsin free employment bureau last week according to the report of Superintendent McMullen.

RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT IS SILENT ON WHAT OCCURRED AT VLADIVOSTOK

St. Petersburg, Jan. 30.—The story of the recent mutiny at Vladivostok and the manner of its termination are a sealed book to St. Petersburg, owing to the difficulty in telegraphic communication and the reticence of the war office officials, who alone are in possession of the details. The navy department has not received any messages since Jan. 25, and the department of the interior received only yesterday from the chief of police a dispatch dated Jan. 24, recounting that the origin of the mutiny of the sailors was due to the arrest of a doctor and a Jewish agitator who had a great deal of influence.

War Office Gives No Details.

A meeting was called at which the revolutionists decided to liberate the prisoners. The mutineers demolished a building in which arms and munitions were stored, seized the rifles and endeavored to compel the commandant to grant the prisoners release. According to this dispatch the artillery men of the garrison were greatly enraged against the mutineers, and seized six soldiers of a wavering regiment, held them as hostages and threatened to execute the six men unless the regiment refused to join the revolutionists and co-operated in crushing the mutiny. Beyond the mere statement that the mutiny is ended and that all is now quiet at Vladivostok the war office is unwilling to give details.

Disorders at Gomel.

Advices from Gomel say that the disorders there, which were the outcome of the old racial feeling, have been subdued, and that the fire has been extinguished after destroying sixty-one stores and thirty-seven houses. Seventeen other stores were demolished by a mob of workmen and peasants. Severe fighting is reported to have occurred between a mob and members of the Jewish band, but no estimate of the casualties is available.

Money from England for Jews.
An English clergyman has arrived in St. Petersburg charged with the distribution under his personal supervision of the fund raised in England for the relief of the Jewish sufferers from the November excesses. He will undertake to prevent the money falling into the hands of the revolutionary organization and being used for the purchase of arms.

Dissatisfied with a Middle Course.
Though an open split was averted in the constitutional democratic convention held here recently, many of the members, conservatives and extremists who were dissatisfied with the middle course adopted, are withdrawing from the party. Prominent among these is Prince Eugene Troubetsky, who declined a place in Count de Witte's cabinet at the party's behest and against his personal inclination. He has published an open letter announcing his withdrawal. The extreme right party is suffering in the same manner, and many dissidents from both camps are swelling the ranks of the League of Octoberists, Progressive Economists and other moderate parties.

HOUSE ADOPTS RESOLUTION TO INVESTIGATE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

Washington, Jan. 30.—What is considered a strike at the railroads was taken by the house in the adoption of a resolution calling on the president to furnish information as to the existence of an alleged agreement, in violation of the interstate commerce law, between the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, Norfolk and Western, Chesapeake and Ohio, Northern Central and Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad companies. Opposition to the resolution did not develop until after it had been declared adopted by the speaker. At this point Dalzell moved against it with a motion to reconsider. This motion was laid on the table with the aid of thirty-seven Republican votes united with the Democrats, which makes it impossible to reconsider the resolution without a two-thirds vote of the house.

The Thirty-Seven Republicans.

The thirty-seven Republicans voting with the Democrats on the motion to lay on the table the motion to reconsider the passage of the resolution were: Bennett of Kentucky, Bishop, Brownlow, Campbell of Ohio, Cooper of Wisconsin, Cooper of Pennsylvania, Cole, Darrah, Davis of Minnesota, Edwards, Fuller, Graff, Grosvenor, Hamilton, Heyburn, Hogg, Holiday, Hinshaw, Kinkaid, C. B. Landis, Frederick Landis, Lawrence, Mann, Miller, Mouser, Mudd, Murphy, Norris, Otjen, Smith of Illinois, Smith of Michigan, Smyser, Southard, Reeder, Tawney, Taylor of Ohio and Welborn.

Tribute to Gen. Wheeler.

A tribute to General Wheeler was paid in the house by Sherman of New York. A bill was under consideration to change the name of a street in the District of Columbia. Sherman presented an amendment to call this street "Wheeler street." "General Wheeler," he said, "for more than a decade served in this house, with unparalleled industry, very great ability, wonderful vitality and unchanging courtesy. In the prime of his vigorous manhood he fought with bravery and brilliancy for a cause he believed to be right. With the shadow of life's evening over his life he battled for our flag with that zeal and energy which belied his years."

HEYBURN SEES A PRESS BUREAU

Says There Is One Connected with the Forestry Bureau.

In the senate Heyburn raised the question regarding the forest preservation. He sharply criticized the methods of the forestry bureau and charged it with maintaining a press combination for the purpose of attacking him. He declined, however, to hold the president responsible for this course. Heyburn said that he had been attacked by "inspired" statements in the press intended to discredit his opposition. Tillman asked if the forestry bureau had a press bureau. Heyburn read newspaper clippings bearing upon his controversy with the administration in support of his statement that there was a systematic effort to minimize his efforts.

He referred to a report of an interview between himself and the president, saying that it was "a tissue of falsehoods." He said he had shown the article to the president and that he had denounced it. "Of course," he said, "that kind of an article could have emanated only from some representative of the forestry bureau who was present." He added that he had no purpose of attacking the administration, and that it was not true that the president had shaken a bunch of photographs in his face.

He declared "the press combination was organized to blacken my character." He said that he had not succeeded in preventing the establishment of the reservation against which he had protested. Tillman suggested that the Idaho senator had not got "the square deal," and that the president had given more heed to the forester than to the senator, but Heyburn declared that he had no complaint to make against the president. Heyburn spoke of the publication of a pamphlet by the forestry bureau as the presentation of the case of the bureau vs. Heyburn. Bailey said this was a serious charge. Heyburn stated that he had done all that he felt called upon to do in directing attention to the fact that there were three men whose sole business it was to conduct a press bureau in the forestry service.

Bailey remarked that if the president had not removed the men guilty of this attack upon a senator then all that had been said of others could be said of the president, but Heyburn refused to accede to the proposition.

Confirmed by the Senate.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The senate has confirmed the following nominations: Henry Clay Ide, Vermont, governor general of the Philippine islands; James F. Smith, California, vice governor of the Philippine islands; Lloyd C. Griscom, Pennsylvania, ambassador to Brazil; Charles A. Goss, Nebraska, United States attorney for the district of Nebraska; collector of customs, Walter I. Lillie, district of Michigan.

Las Rebel Has Surrendered

San Domingo, Jan. 30.—General Barba, the only remaining rebel chief in the northern part of the country, has surrendered, accepting the guarantees of the government. The government and intelligent people of the republic desire the treaty with the United States to be passed, considering it to be a safeguard against revolutions, as with the custom houses and all the internal revenues in the hands of a receiver the republic will secure permanent peace.

Action on the treaty at Washington is anxiously awaited. The Dominican congress meets Feb. 27, and it is certain that the treaty will be passed so soon as presented. Business is improving.

AT THE THEATRES

The huge picture frame from which Miss Tanguay makes her strikingly effective entrance in the last act of "The Sambo Girl" is not a theatrical "prop," but instead a solid frame finished in burnished gold, weighing in all a trifle over 750 pounds. At one time it contained the famous painting called "The First Dancing Lesson" and occupied a conspicuous place in the drawing-room of Harwick House, London. Upon the settling of Lord Harwick's estate the painting and frame were sold separately, the latter being brought to this country and after reposing for two years in the room of a New York dealer, was seen by Manager Jos. M. Gaites and purchased for Miss Tanguay's use. Will be at La Crosse theatre, Thursday, Feb. 1st.

The Orpheum company at the La Crosse theatre will give two shows tonight and three on Wednesday, at 2:30, 7:30 and 9 o'clock. They go to Albert Lea Thursday, Owatonna Friday and give a matinee on Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The show presented by this company this week is "A-1." Every act is up to standard and more. Don't fail to see the Sheck Brothers, the most wonderful athletic specialty ever seen in La Crosse. Lazar and Lazar do a high class musical act, one of them playing two violins at the same time. They have a fox terrier that sings like a charming soubrette. The Escher Sisters have already made themselves favorites in La Crosse with their graceful dancing. The moving pictures are pleasing all who attend. The price of admission is only 10 cents for matinee and 10 and 15 cents at night for any seat in the house.

THE MINE SCALE CONFERENCE

Indianapolis, Jan. 30.—Increase or decrease in wages was not mentioned during the meeting of the joint scale committee of the coal miners and operators of the central competitive district. The discussion was confined exclusively to the run-of-mine basis and the 7-cent differential between pick and machine mining. Every member of the committee of each side took part in the debate, which at times was spirited, but no progress toward the settlement of either of these demands was made.

The miners and operators of the Southwestern field met and the miners presented their demands, which are identical with those made by the central district miners, with the addition of an eight-hour day and readjustment of the engineers' and firemen's scales. On the other hand the operators demand a decrease of 15 per cent. in the scale. No progress was made.

Quesada is Not Satisfied

Washington, Jan. 30.—Quesada, the Cuban minister here, is not entirely satisfied with the report of the collector of customs at Key West that the Cuban striking cigarmakers who recently left that place abruptly, thus terminating the strike of the cigarmakers there, did so voluntarily.

He has a report from the Cuban consul at Key West which he has exhibited to Secretary Root. It is understood the report says that though the men made no open objection to leaving Key West they were escorted out of town with a considerable show of armed force. It is not yet clear whether there will be further proceedings.

WISCONSIN GIVES SCHOLARSHIPS

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 30.—The regents of the University of Wisconsin have decided to offer every year four graduate scholarships of $25 each to members of the graduating class of four Wisconsin colleges, Beloit, Ripon, Lawrence and Milwaukee-Downer. The faculty of each of these institutions is to nominate one this graduate scholarship at the state university.

This new arrangement is a part of the policy inaugurated by President Van Hise last year, of bringing about as close relations as possible between the institutions of higher education of the state. The first step in that direction was taken last year when uniform entrance requirements were adopted by Ripon and Lawrence, and when arrangements were made by which students of these institutions can enter the university at the beginning of the junior year with full credit, or can take up their professional studies in law or engineering on the same terms as students of the state university. The new plan of graduate scholarships will make it possible for graduates of Wisconsin colleges to continue their work at Wisconsin under the most favorable conditions. The offer of these scholarships by the university has been accepted by the faculty of the four colleges, the presidents of which express themselves as well pleased with the new arrangement. The first award of these scholarships will be made to the members of the class graduating from these institutions next June.

ARE YOU A MOTHER?

If YOU are a mother, listen to the request of a mother. The Tribune wants to make its feature known as "HIGH CHAIR PHILOSOPHY," a means of entertaining the childless with the joys of the child-blessed home. The light and laughter and prattle incident to the ideal home is denied to many whom nature intended to bless with these delights. Every day, mothers, your children do and say things that make you laugh, or cry. These you enjoy, they are part of your life and help to make it worth living. Won't you share them with others? We promise not to use your names, unless you consent; we think it does no harm and would prefer to use them, but we pledge you our honor not to unless you are willing. Write or phone that latest bright or droll saying of your babes to Mrs. A. M. Brayton, 1122 Main street; new phone 814C. "HIGH CHAIR PHILOSOPHY" appears in the Saturday issue only.

THE PUBLISHERS.

IN JUSTICE TO ESCH.

What is the good of newspapers, if they do not tell the truth! La Crosse has not been too well pleased with the alleged conduct of Congressman Esch in voting against the "statehood bill." The Milwaukee papers, which maintain costly correspondence bureaus in Washington, said he voted "agin it." The La Crosse Chronicle and Leader-Press, said he voted against it in pretended dispatches clipped from these Milwaukee papers and marked "Special Correspondence." The Tribune, too young and modest to pirate stories and claim authorship, copied it as "local" from the Milwaukee papers.

But the most striking thing about it all is that Mr. Esch did NOT vote against the bill. He and Cooper, alone of the Badger contingent, voted FOR the bill. That is what our good republican friend should have done, and we are glad of it. Here is what the Eau Claire Telegram says about the matter:

"Several of the Milwaukee newspapers have caused us a good deal of trouble from time to time. Not long ago one of them misquoted some figures on foreign commerce and built up an elaborate structure of conclusions on the wrong figures. Another came along the other day with a statement that, because the senior senator from Wisconsin maintained that fixing railroad rates for the future was necessarily not a judicial function, he was therefore opposed to the views of the junior senator. Now another Milwaukee newspaper prints a leading editorial in which it says:

"Wisconsin furnished seven of the fifty-seven 'insurgents' who voted against the Philippine tariff bill last Tuesday. One other Wisconsin legislator was paired with the sole democrat from the state, and one did not vote. Representative Cooper was the only Wisconsin man who voted for the bill, which was strictly in harmony with the recommendations of the president, and was being supported by the party organization in the house, and which passed, notwithstanding the attitude of the Wisconsin members, by the overwhelming vote of 258 to 71."

"And so forth. Now, one would like to be able to take statements by large newspapers printed in large cities at face value, without being compelled to rummage around to find out whether they are accurate or not. But it seems it won't do. A metropolitan newspaper is quite as likely to be in error as a country newspaper, the editor of which must stop in the middle of an article on the 'Progress of Events,' 'Shall Football be Abolished,' or the Philippine tariff bill or the Venezuelan difficulty and write up a new sidewalk or a ghost story from the Third ward."

"The Congressional Record shows, as everybody expected or ought to have expected it would show, the fact that not only Cooper of the First Wisconsin district, but Esch of the Seventh Wisconsin district also, voted for the administration Philippine tariff bill which passed the House Jan. 16 and that Representative Esch, as well as Representative Cooper was among the 258 'yeas.'"

"As to the other Wisconsin members, Adams, Babcock, Stafford, Davidson, Minor, Brown and Jenkins voted 'nay,' Otjen and Weisse (dem.) answered 'present.'"

"A correction by the Milwaukee newspaper is in order."

A PRACTICAL SUGGESTION.

"Horse sense" is "property," just as a good horse or an acre of land is "property." He have never met A. W. Schall, but we are in receipt of a letter from him which indicates that he owns some of the property known as "horse sense." We commend his suggestion to the MANUFACTURERS OF LA CROSSE. It is as follows:

"La Crosse, Wis., Jan. 27, 1906.

"Editor Tribune:

"Dear Sir: Allow me to suggest as an assistant to your pledge to promote the sale of made in La Crosse goods that all of our manufacturers be urged to provide and attend to it that there is conspicuously displayed in all stores where their goods are on sale, suitable signs calling attention to the fact that certain specific goods from their factories are offered for sale there."

"Cards bearing such inscriptions as 'Build up our home industries,' 'Buy Made in La Crosse Crackers,' 'Made in La Crosse,' 'Hosiery for La Crosse People, We Sell Them Here,' 'La Crosse Made Sweethome Soap, For Sale Here,' etc., etc. Such constant reminders as Sweethome Soap, For Sale Here, etc., etc. Such constant reminders as the foregoing would greatly assist to the practical working of your pledges."

Respectfully,

A. W. SCHALL."

Really, this is an idea worth while. Give it a trial, you manufacturers! No merchant could, or would, decline to give space to these signs. PUT THEM UP, and The Tribune promises to help out by KEEPING EVERLASTINGLY AT THEM!

FINE IDEA, BUT NO GOOD.

Anne Hall, a woman of "ideas" and possibly an astute advertiser, wants to kill off the doomed suffering. To that end she has caused the introduction into the Ohio legislature of a bill providing that a reputable physician, in the presence of at least three witnesses, and with the consent of the sufferer, may put the victim out of misery.

Humanity seconds this idea, which is not a new one. How many of us have stood by the bedside of affliction and prayed that the inevitable might hasten to relieve the agonies of a loved one! The thought is not unchristian; it is more than humane, it is the expression of a God-sent compassion.

But what scope for crime is here provided! This is the old and unanswerable reply to an equally old suggestion. Anne Hall's safeguards are insufficient. So long as it is true that four felons (the doctor and the three witnesses) can come together, so long will the idea remain repugnant to society. There is not a community in the world big enough to enjoy a postoffice in which four fiends of this sort might not be associated for the purpose of committing crime.

JUSTICE, BUT NOT ENOUGH OF IT.

Captain Van Schiack, of the ill-fated Slocum, in the burning of which 1,000 lives were sacrificed, has been given a sentence of 10 years in prison. The world arises to chorus, "To bad!"

We are apt to let our sympathies carry us beyond the mark. The 1,000 died months ago; the conviction and sentence of the "one" is fresh and therefore distasteful. We all hate to see others suffer.

But the evidence showed that Captain Van Shiack was criminally negligent in having failed to have "fire drills," to inspect and condemn his "punk" life preservers, and in all the little essentials to a safety insured vessel. He contributed to 1,000 deaths, and his age and other conditions do not extenuate.

But justice is not satisfied. Better let the captain, the least of the offenders, go, unless we punish the real rascals. We submit the identity of these and the punishment they should receive to show a just proportion to that meted out to Captain Van Shiack.

(1) Manufacturers of "leather" life preservers—Death at the stake and hell fire.

(2) Owners who, for a little money, winked at risk of lives—Hanging, and purgatory.

(3) United States inspectors who dishonestly passed the vessel as safe and legally equipped—100 years in solitary confinement on bread and water.

Watch the papers and see if the inspectors do not get a little punishment, the owners and the leather life preserver makers none! "Money talks!"

QUIPS AND CRANKS AND WANTON WILES.

OF LOANS AND LITERATURE.

The good wife (the one who "sleeps below") calls attention to the fact that nowhere between the covers of our books can be found any of those bright little pasters admonishing borrowers to return the treasure to the empty, yearning shelves. She suggests that we annex that which soundeth best of all the great effusions of great men dedicated to the protection of the library against the festive borrower, an idea repugnant to me to whom original eccentricity appeals more deeply than borrowed art. "Nay, good woman," I retorted, "Fanny Fan will not filch rusty rhymes from Shakespeare or Bryant or any of those old fogies who, mark you, have never come boldly into the open and offered comparison of their literature with that sparkling column of effervescent brilliancy known as 'Quips & Cranks.' Me to the Remington, and the tune I will play thereon will make our library one with the Boston conservatory."

Many tunes played I, and none to my exact liking. For I remembered who borrowed this and who that, and what would appeal to this man and to that woman. The result is a multiplicity of gems, any one of which is enough to palsy the borrowing hand that would violate the sanctity of the book shelves.

But a new complication arises. What of the books already in the wanton hands of the pillagers! "Aye, there's the rub!" And again woman's wit to the rescue! "Rush into print with all that doggerel," said the good wife. "After reading it no one will want to be caught with one of your books in his possession."

The first of these stanzas, all of which I submit to the kind reader's judgment as to which is the worst, was written to appeal particularly to the railroad presidents whom I number among my intimate acquaintances. Try a few bars (no, no! you won't take the same), and pass comment "with your best violence."

Who wrote this book concerns thee not—
The fellow may be saint or grafter—
But don't forget who OWNS this book
Is he whose name is writ hereafter!
Remember, when it left his wallet,
'Twas furnished with a round-trip ticket!

A. M. B.

No, not now! Prithce keep the peace until you have gone through the list. This one is for my old maid friends, who may take the hint that I am sometimes "a loan" and return any book as an excuse to visit me tete-a-tete:

Mine is no public library.
But if you read between the lines,
You'll find who takes this book away.
Nor brings it back, must pay the fines.

So bring my good book back, dear friend,
And introduce me to my own,
And say in that old cheerful way,
"Ah ha, I'll leave you all 'a loan!'"

The next paster is for my admirers. It was written more to advertise the profundity of my genius than to reclaim the borrowed books. In fact, to any who will read it through without putting tongue in cheek the book wherein it is pasted becomes a gift. (Note how unequivocally it doth express my keen appreciation of the author's distinguished abilities):

I b'long to Mr. Brayton,
(A gentleman profound),
And if you test his memory
You'll find that it is sound.
You've read me; take me home and prove
You're equally astute;
For you'll return a favor,
And homesick book to boot.

And at last the gem! This to those who dig deep in secluded corners for the unexpurgated! This to those who burrow far into dark shelves wherein are hid the unmailed jewels of Bo-cassio, De Maupassant, Frobert and other authors of whom civilization has said that their transcendent genius is so great as to excuse their wickedness. I won't mention names, but you fellows read this stanza and hurry back with those books:

You've read me; did I entertain?
I thought so from your charmed look!
So take me home again and say,
"Brayton, here's your d—mn—d old book!"

LIKE CHI, LIKE NORTH SIDE.

Now if Dr. Johnson were to read this, he would think that some north side humorist had waxed poetical. And if Dr. Whipple were to read it, he would think that Dr. Johnson had become a contributor to "your valuable publication." For the benefit of those readers who love verse for the art there is in it we wish to say that this was "copped" bodily from The Friday American, and has no reference to the esteemed chiropractor. Well, anyway, it goes this way:

"Behold the highborn heroine within the villain's clutch,
Too frail and weak to wail or speak
(Unless you count 'a well-bred shriek

At which the craven knave, in pique
Exclaims: 'This is too much!')
But see! The hero crouches low, behind yon canvas tree,
Now let us wait expectant, for the rough-house there will be!

The spot-light finds the hero's face exceeding dark and grim.
Behind his gun he shouts: "Have done!

Unhand that sweet and lovely one!"

And will the wicked villain run?

OLD SORES SAP THE VITALITY AND UNDERMINE THE HEALTH

Old Sores that refuse to heal are a constant menace to health. They sap the vitality and undermine the constitution by draining the system of its very life fluids, and those afflicted with one of these ulcers grow despondent and almost desperate as one treatment after another fails. They patiently apply salves, washes, plasters, etc., but in spite of all these the sore refuses to heal and eats deeper into the surrounding flesh, destroying the tissues and growing to be a festering, inflamed and angry mass. The source of the trouble is in the blood. This vital fluid is filled with impurities and poisons which are constantly being discharged into the sore or ulcer, making it impossible for the place to heal. It will not do to depend on external applications for a cure, because they do not reach the real cause, and valuable time is lost experimenting with such treatment; the most they can do is keep the ulcer clean. Any sore that will not heal is dangerous, for the reason that it may have the deadly germs of Cancer behind it. A cure can be brought about only through a remedy that can change the quality of the blood, and this is what S. S. S. does. It goes to the very bottom of the trouble, drives out the poisons and germs with which it is filled, and purifies and builds up the entire circulation. By the use of S. S. S. the sore is supplied with new, rich blood which corrects the trouble, soon stops the discharge, and allows the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. also reinvigorates the entire system, and where the constitution has been depleted or broken down it quickly builds it up and restores perfect health. Write for our special book on sores and ulcers, and any medical advice you are in need of; no charge for either. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

AN APPEAL

To the Manhood of La Crosse Men

AND

Womanhood of La Crosse Women

For months THE TRIBUNE has been conducting a campaign to promote the support of La Crosse manufacturers by urging all loyal citizens to buy goods made in La Crosse wherever and whenever they are to be had on even terms with goods shipped here from foreign factories. It is an unfortunate fact that all of us are in the habit of neglecting this important duty. We do it because we are thoughtless; every man of us would buy a La Crosse article that is as good as a foreign-made article sold at the same prices, IF WE ONLY THOUGHT. The Tribune proposes to make every man in La Crosse THINK.

Why We Should Always Think

If La Crosse has a great future, it is as a MANUFACTURING CENTER. The sawmills and the Wisconsin pine forests made La Crosse. But the pine forests are gone, and the sawmills are gone, and most of the lumbermen are gone. Those who remain have wealth accumulated in a lifetime of industry, and they want to invest it. They would prefer to invest it in La Crosse, but they will not do so extensively unless they recognize a purpose on the part of the people of La Crosse, to support the establishments that are started here. Neither will the millions of outside capital seeking investment come here without the encouragement of HOME SUPPORT. In short, La Crosse cannot be anything great except a manufacturing center, and it cannot become a manufacturing center unless its people invite investment in factories by supporting their factories.

It Is Up to You

Do YOU live in La Crosse? Do YOU expect to CONTINUE to live in La Crosse? If you do, you are vitally interested in everything that will build up La Crosse. Nothing will build this city up as will home patronage of home goods. The Tribune has begun a crusade which it believes will within one year increase the home market for home-made goods FIFTY PER CENT. That is a lot to say. We say it because we believe in YOU. We believe that once YOU become impressed with the importance of doing so, you will DEMAND home-manufactured goods. Who are YOU?

Are YOU a capitalist? An investor? If so, YOU know that a popular purpose to buy home-made goods means success to La Crosse factories whose successes MUST radiate success to every man who owns a dollar's worth of property here, or is engaged in business here, or earns salary or wages here.

Are YOU a merchant? If so you know that support of home goods means more factories, more employees, more patrons of the retail stores, more sales, more profits, more prosperity. It means enhanced values of your real estate; it means a bigger bank account and an expansion of your business.

Are YOU a salary or wage earner? If so you know that home buying of home goods means more employment, higher average wages, increased in value of your home if you own one, greater general prosperity in which you are a stockholder.

What Can You Do?

You can make up your mind to do something, and DO it. We ask YOU to fill out and sign the pledge that accompanies this article, and mail it to The Tribune. We guarantee you that this will HELP. "Every little bit helps."

Think what it would mean were 1,000 men of La Crosse to sign this pledge, and KEEP IT! WE KNOW that at least 5,000 La Crosse men will sign it and keep it. It is easy enough, and we know that YOU will do this little bit for La Crosse. WAIT A MINUTE! This means YOU. And NOW is the time.

Get your friends to sign this pledge also. See to it that your influence is exerted in a good cause. Write a letter telling what you think of the work, and suggest to us new ideas in carrying it out. Address all letters and pledges to

City Builders' Pledge

I hereby pledge my support to the movement for the support of HOME factories. I will buy La Crosse made goods wherever they compete in quality and price with foreign products; I will buy of home retailers in preference to foreign mail order or department houses; I will give preference to home jobbing houses; I will endeavor to induce my neighbors and friends to do the same.

FOXY FELLOW GETS WOMEN'S MONEY

The local police received a letter from Washington, D. C., warning the local department against a swindler who is reported to be headed this way. The game of the swindler is to advertise for a housekeeper. When the proposed victim answers the advertisement the fellow shows her a draft on some distant western bank for $25,000 or $30,000 and after a day or so proposes marriage. Just before the time for the ceremony he tells his bride that he is afraid that he will have to postpone the ceremony as he is unable to get his draft cashed and will have to arrange to get the money from his home town later. He manages to get his proposed bride to lend him two or three hundred until after the wedding, but money and groom disappear. The game has been worked successfully in several cities and the local authorities are warning all marriageable elderly women to be on the lookout.

CAR SHORTAGE DE-LAYS BRIDGE WORK

A serious shortage of cars in western freight traffic is responsible for a delay of ten weeks in the replanking of the wagon bridge. The Oregon fir which will be used in the reconstruction was ordered six weeks ago, within a few hours after Wooley & Hanson had been awarded the contract. After waiting six weeks the contractors received word that cars in which to transport the lumber could not be secured for four weeks. Thus the work cannot be started until about the first of March, although according to original plans it was supposed to be completed now.

Lenten Season Starts Earlier

The Lenten season for the year 1906 will open on the last day of February—which is eight days earlier than Lent began last year.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, and terminates on Easter Sunday, covering a period of forty days exclusive of Sundays. Ash Wednesday this year comes on February 28th, and Easter Sunday falls on April 15th.

The first Sunday in Lent will be the 4th of March. Palm Sunday will be the 8th of April and Good Friday one of the most important occasions falling in Lent, will be the 13th of April.

Last year Ash Wednesday did not occur until the 8th of March, and Easter Sunday was not until the 23rd of April. Lent was unusually late in that year.

By some religious denominations Lent is observed as a period of fasting and abstinence from all worldly amusements, and hence affairs in social circles require some special adjustment as this season approaches.

The last day of the Lenten season—Easter Sunday—is accorded a more general observance being the accepted time for the ladies to make their first appearance in new spring headwear.

THE FRANK COLLIER
MEDICINE CO. A LIVE ONE

The Frank W. Collier Company, manufacturers of proprietary medicines and toilet articles, are located at 732 Rose street, where they put up Collier's Fong, a rheumatic, catarrhal, and kidney disease remedy; Collier's Tovo Cream, Collier's Jiu Jitsu Liniment, and a full line of oriental preparations which are sold throughout the United States.

The company started out three years ago first carrying Fong only but last season added the other remedies and toilet articles the formulae for which Mr. Collier had possessed and tried for many years in the retail trade.

Besides a portion of the first floor the basement is devoted to the manufacture of these products. They are sold through the druggists and also through the agency plan throughout the country. Mr. Collier is president and general manager of the company.

It is anticipated that he will shortly go out of the retail business and engage in manufacturing entirely. The growth of the business has been such as to promise a great future, and the company hopes that "Fong" may do for La Crosse what "Postum" has done for Battle Creek.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS

Robbers Get $20,000 in Jewelry.
Colorado Springs, Colo., Jan. 30.—Robbers who broke into the baggage room of the Colorado Midland railway at Manitou escaped with the contents of two sample trunks belonging to James Nettle, salesman for the Ryder Jewelry company, of St. Louis. The value of the stolen property is said to be worth $20,000. A handkerchief containing a number of watch chains, apparently dropped by the robbers, is the only clue upon which the police have to work.

Students Defy Authority.
Richmond, Ind., Jan. 30.—Hazers at Earlham college defied members of the faculty and ducked Sidney Hutton, a student, in a bathtub full of cold water. Hutton was dragged from a nurse's room, where he had taken refuge, and though the president of the college and other members of the faculty interceded for him he was plunged in the icy water repeatedly. The hazers then served notice that if any one were suspended all the students in the dormitory would leave school.

Iowa Ice Men Alarmed.
Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 30.—Continued mild weather has caused widespread alarm among the ice men of Des Moines and Iowa, who have to date harvested practically no ice. The fields undergoing alternative freezes and thaws are left in a spongy, dirty, condition, so that in the event of a steady, even freeze in February the product can be but little better than cold storage.

Had Suffered from Melancholia.
Washington, Jan. 30.—Fritz Rueter, a well known hotel and restaurant keeper at John Marshall place and Pennsylvania avenue, committed suicide by shooting. Rueter had been a sufferer from melancholia for some time, and on several occasions of late had threatened to end his life. He was 46 years old.

Anti-Saloon Leaguers at Work.
Springfield, Ill., Jan. 30.—Anti-saloon League field day was observed in local churches Sunday. Twelve workers made addresses, detailing the records of members of the assembly on the local option bill. Funds were raised to prosecute a campaign similar to that in Ohio.

Saginaw Man in Luck.
Saginaw, Mich., Jan. 30.—Among the survivors of the steamer Valencia, which foundered off Victoria, B. C., is Thomas Lamson, son of Mrs. Margaret Lamson, 306 Simouneau street. Lamson is a sailor, about 21 years of age, and was one of the crew of the Valencia.

Two Miles in Less Than a Minute.
Ormond, Fla., Jan. 30.—Both Demogot and Mariott drove their cars two miles in less than one minute in the two-mile-a-minute trials at the automobile races. Demogot's time was 58.45 seconds and that of Mariott was 59.35 seconds.

EVEN THE FARMERS ACCEPT THE AUTO

ITS USEFULNESS IS RECOGNIZED

We all remember how, a few years ago, there were printed pictures in the leading magazines and the Sunday newspapers of a strange vehicle that was propelled by some internal force, and that the Chinaman described with the laconic observation, "No hors-ec, no mul-ec, go-ec like hell-ec."

That was the "automobile." Those Sunday papers were so given to exaggeration that we wondered if it was a hoax. To begin with, the new horseless carriages were at the time said to be indigent to Paris, and Paris was the city of extravagant yarns. It all seemed very doubtful.

Probably had one said to us then that in 1906 the businessman of La Crosse would be riding to their offices in autos and that our big business houses would be delivering by auto and that between fifty and one hundred of the cars would be owned by La Crosse people, and that a company had been formed to do all sorts of draying, parcel delivery, hack and touring business and to compete with the street cars, if anyone had told us this a few years ago we would have thought it a very funny joke.

But it isn't any joke. The horse will never go out of use, but he must surrender 90 per cent of his functions to the auto. The gasoline and electric cars and runabouts and drays are established firmly as one of the most practical and useful inventions of the last century. The day when it is classed with the interloper; the day when its owner shall be regarded as a reckless and unworthy citizen, is gone. There will be accidents now and then, just as there are in steam roads, but no one would think of calling railroads a nuisance, nor will they call the auto a nuisance in the future. Fair regulations controlling speed and requiring bells or whistles and other precautions against danger are now to take the place of the disapprobation with which new things are apt to be accepted. Why, even the farmers now recognize in the auto the coming vehicle.

TUBERCULOSIS IN CATTLE
Test to be Made for Benefit of Farmers

During the ten days' farmers' course at the state university, Feb. 6-16, there will be slaughtered at the college of agriculture a herd of cattle which have been found to be tuberculous on the basis of the tuberculin test. These post mortem examinations, which will probably take place Feb. 10, will give an opportunity for farmers to see the efficiency of this test in diagnosing the presence of this cattle scourge. The widespread distribution of this disease in Wisconsin and especially its insidious development, which permits of its establishing itself without the owner being aware of the fact, makes the question of bovine tuberculosis of special importance to the stock interests of Wisconsin.

WOMAN

all the years I had solicited and were also asked whether they had ever heard me gossip about different members of the church. They said they could not recall any time when I had."

It is claimed the church in a body had no explanation whatever of the case and it is said gossip had injured Mrs. Silloway before those of the church who were present so that their votes were influenced.

After the vote was taken five letters of withdrawal were asked for.

It is also said that the more serious charge which was supposed to have been kept inside the committee was talked of over the telephone by a member of the committee.

"It has been reported that theatre-going, card-playing and dancing were not what Rev. Gray called the 'chaff of the wheat,'" said Mrs. Silloway, "but Rev. Gray came to me and spoke to me about theatre-going and said that anyone who went 'should be dealt with.'" Mrs. Silloway says she "did not take the man seriously," as she "did not know him."

It is also said that Rev. Gray started a quarrel with the men and began with one of the trustees of the church, but that when the latter could not be dealt with he started with the women.

"Mr. Gray, it is understood, was not allowed in the committee room at any time during the 'trial,' and sat in an adjoining room reading his bible.

It is said the pastor caused a similar disturbance in the congregation in September.

LUMBER PRICES ADVANCE AGAIN

Lumber prices have advanced again. Piece stuff and fencing are $1.50 higher on the lists of northern pine manufacturers, and boards of all lengths and sizes are $1 and over the former lists.

The advance is declared by manufacturers to be inevitable under the conditions. The report of invoices taken Jan. 1 show less lumber on hand than a year previous, and the demand this month has been unusual for midwinter. The Minnesota and Wisconsin mills have a big trade now in Chicago and points east of there, where manufacturers require northern pine, and are not able to get it anywhere else. There was some sentiment against the raise for fear of retarding building operations, but manufacturers who are shipping heavily to factory trade declared they were already selling above the list, and the others came into line. Prices are now $3 to $5 higher than in 1904, and in the last six or seven years have almost doubled on cheaper grades. No 4 boards which are largely used in box-making, used to sell for $7 a thousand not so very long ago. Now they cannot be bought for less than the list price of $15.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowing of a parasite that destroys the vitality of the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Pointers for the Businessman

Cowper wrote that "to follow foolish precedents, and to wink with both our eyes, is easier than to think!" but this is not true of modern business life, especially of advertising, in which even the best precedents are followed but a little while and then easily passed on the road; and in which to wink with either eye—at lethargy and inaction—is to invite wreck and disaster.

Just as it costs no more for a long tip on an up-to-date trolley car now than it used to for a short one on a horse car, so the modern store, which spends money for advertising, can sell goods more cheaply than the old-fashioned store which "saves the expense of advertising."

"One must know one's own measure and keep it in view." Just to specify. YOU know how big your store is—you know its measure: Does anyone in the city think it a smaller store than it is? The chances are that if anyone does it is because you have been careless about keeping your store's measure "in view."

"A truth looks freshest in the fashion of the day." The fashion of the day for store-truths is display type, with liberal space for picturesque effects.

If you can afford to pay a few dollars more for a thing, now and then, than is necessary, then you can afford to overlook the ads, now and then.

"Many little make a much;" and if you find one want ad, a day worth answering the total of gain at the end of a year will surprise you.

WHY BE SICK?

WHEN CHIROPRACTIC WILL CURE YOU.

CHIROPRACTIC

Is based upon two principles; first, luxation of the vertebrae causes pinched nerves; second, pinched nerves cause disease. Luxation and compression cause arthritic conditions of the spinal cord, and the nerves emanating therefrom, also a part of the vertebral column, and diseases are prolonged until the pressure upon the nerve leading to the parts affected is relieved. The manner of removing the pressure is done by the use of the hands of the operator. Sometimes this may be done at once but generally it takes time to accomplish this object, so that freedom prevails. This is the most reasonable thing to do, and the larger percentage of human ailments succumb after this sort of adjustment, when scientifically applied, and that too in cases abandoned by practitioners of the various systems of healing, for the pressure is the only thing to remove, and that done, results follow cause and effect. To do this Chiropractic. Ninety per cent of all diseases originate in the spine. The science of Chiropractic but a few years ago was unknown. Today it is known only in communities where it has accomplished seemingly marvelous results in the cure of diseases. People must believe the evidence of their own senses. If a person comes to a Chiropractor with a disease which others have failed to cure, and that person is completely restored to health, we must believe.

WE DEFY DISEASE

JOHNSON & WHIPPLE

WHAT WE CURE

When anything new in the light of radical departure from what people have been educated to believe, is brought before them, it is human nature to be skeptical. Were not Morse and Franklin called lunatics, and laughed at? Many other great discoveries which at first met with only scorn have been recognized as blessings for scores of years.

If you have any of the following ailments go to a competent Chiropractic and have him take off the pressure.

Apoplexy	Female Diseases

NO SURGERY

A HUMAN BEING

is a human machine and like a machine would run smoothly if all parts were in their proper condition. We adjust the spine thereby allowing Nature to cure all diseases.

CANCERS

The cause is an obstruction to the blood circulation and an injury to certain nerves. Show us a case of cancer no matter on what portion of the body that cancer may be, and we will at once show you displacements which obstruct the blood circulation and injure certain nerves. A cancer is the effect of an injured nerve, as also are tumors. When the cause is gone their support is gone and they cease to exist no matter where they are, inside or out.

RHEUMATISM

Do you have Rheumatism? Why? Your physician will say "too much uric acid in the blood." But why is the uric acid there, and why does it lodge? We will tell you, first the digestive organs are not doing their work properly or an abnormal quantity of uric acid would not be in the blood. Second, the kidneys are inactive through overwork, or nature would filter the uric acid out of the blood. The cause of inactivity of the digestive organs is due to pressure on the nerves through which nature controls these organs. If the vertebrae of the spine were all in proper position that pressure could not exist, hence no disease.

MICROBES

Microbes are scavengers, not disease breeders. Microbes and germs were for a long time thought by the majority of the people to be the original cause, in a great many instances, of disease, but now it has been proved that microbes and germs are the result and not the cause of disease. They live on decayed matter and rotten tissue, and a healthy body positively cannot be affected by the contagion, and the little sanitarians would have to devote their time to dead animals in the woods, which they quickly devour and a healthy body is impossible with a luxated vertebrae, as disease and luxated vertebrae travel hand in hand.

WISCONSIN WILL RETAIN FOOTBALL

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 30.—The faculty of the Wisconsin university will doubtless approve the suggestions of the New York football rules committee, providing the other members of the big nine conference will do likewise. None of the members of the faculty will state positively whether he believes the other members will vote in favor of the suggestions, but the general opinion among the student body and others is that they will when the time comes.

President Van Hise said that he was not in a position to express an opinion as to whether the faculty would approve the suggestions or not. He wanted the official representatives of both the Chicago and the New York conference before he would express an opinion. The faculty will probably pass upon the subject at its meeting a week from tomorrow Dr. Van Hise said.

Prof. Adams, chairman of the athletic council and general censor of university athletics, said that he approved of the suggestion of a forward pass, the ten yard gain and other reforms recommended, but he could not forecast the action of the faculty on the matter.

Yesterday Celebrated Here

Carnation day, the anniversary of the birthday of President McKinley, was observed yesterday in La Crosse and generally in every city throughout the country. There was a good demand for the flower from local florists yesterday and today an extra large stock were soon sold out.

As usual, the Carnation league, organized soon after McKinley's assassination, sent out circulars calling attention to Carnation day and requesting the people to observe the sentiment. Members of military organizations like the G. A. R. and the Spanish-American War Veterans were especially diligent in commemorating McKinley's birthday, he having been himself a veteran of the civil war and president of the United States during the Spanish-American war.

TRUSTY RAN AWAY; RETURNS INSANE

Michigan City, Ind., Jan. 30.—Stanislaus Abrowski, a "trusty" convict who escaped from the state prison Saturday evening, has been returned to prison, having been captured six miles west of this city. He was chased out of a wood by guards who were close upon him, and was caught by a party of farmers. Since Saturday the man had been running aimlessly through the woods and fields, and was almost exhausted.

He had discarded coat, hat and shoes. His legs and feet were frightfully lacerated by his flight among the brush and briars. Abrowski shows symptoms of insanity, and is now in the prison hospital. He is a Poleander, and is unable to speak English. He was sent to the prison from South Bend, Ind., for petit larceny.

INDIAN FIGHTER DIES AT BELOIT

BELOIT, Wis., Jan. 30.—Silas W. Menzie, one of the best known lawyers in south Wisconsin, died suddenly on Sunday. He was 65 years old and had been in poor health for a long time though his death was entirely unlooked for. He attended to his business on Saturday and planned a trip to Omaha. He was district attorney for Walworth county where he lived from boyhood till 1890, when he moved to Beloit. He was city attorney, alderman and justice of the peace here. In 1861 he went to California and was agent for a stage coach company. He had skirmishes with the Indians and saw life on the plains in the early days. He was one of the few survivors of a steamship disaster on the Pacific coast. Mr. Menzie was an advance agent for the Barnum shows for several seasons and went with the show to Australia. The Knights Templar will conduct the funeral today and accompany the body to Delavan where interment takes place.

HAZING KILLED HIM; SUIT IS STARTED

Columbus, O., Jan. 30.—Setting as the ground of action the alleged hazing episode at the Hilliard school, Charles J. Leat, administrator of the estate of Cecil F. Leat, has filed suit in the common pleas court against Carlton Sherwood and others for $10,000 damages.

The petition says that on the afternoon of Nov. 9 last the defendants, while at play in the high school yard at Hilliard, willfully and wantonly seized young Leat and rode him on a rail, after which he was thrown down to the ground and so bruised and injured internally and externally that on Jan. 3 he died.
